“ Always a smile and a quiet but hard word worker. Gone too soon.

Sincerely,
Jill O'Connor (Masonite)

“ I have very fond memories of my Uncle Eddy as a child. He would take my sisters and me on four wheeler rides all over Stevensville as well as take us on walks in the summer. We would go to the store and he would buy us lots of candy and whatever else we wanted. He was the fort master and would let us make the largest blanket forts when he was watching us if grandma went into town. I used to enjoy sitting on the front porch with him and my grandpa at the farmhouse and watching birds at the feeder. He was the kind of man that would do anything for anyone and give you the shirt off your back if needed. He was also a wonderful Great Uncle and adored his Great Nieces and Nephews. They also enjoyed stopping over to see their Uncle Eddy.

I am sad all this occurred during the coronavirus and we couldn't come together to share our memories of him, as undoubtable there are many memories to be shared. Anyone who knew Uncle Eddy would have funny stories about the things he would say or do. He was a blast to be around and a great man.

Love and miss you always.

Stacy and Reid.

“ I've known Eddie since high school, he was my best friend and we have so many crazy memories together. He was a great man and will surely be missed. I will be thinking of the family.

With love,
Jerry and Judy Camp
