“ Dear Linda, Lester, Claudia, Becky, and Family,
Please accept Debbie's and my deepest condolences for the loss of your father, Jay. I am deeply saddened by his death, but also thankful for his friendship over so much of my life. I know that his faith always sustained him, particularly at the loss of Charlotte, whom I loved dearly. I was always glad to see Jay, and catch up when I returned to Towanda. The last time was in 2016, when we breakfasted with the church group, and I was so pleased to see Claudia after many years. I have such fond memories of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer. They remembered traveling to Kentucky on the same train with my late mother, Mary "Molly" Jennings Hawke, early in their marriage. Jay Spencer loaned me his fine tweed overcoat to use in our Senior Class play. It fit well, and I wished he would will it to me (wink). We were all truly blessed to have him for a friend and example in life.

May God bless, you my dear friends in your time of grief.

Sincerely,

David B. Hawke

“ Our deepest Sympathies to Jay's children and the rest of his family. Thanks for getting Jay all those western books. Not only did we enjoy them, but made a new friend. When we went to pick up the books, we would spend time talking about all those projects that you all had him doing. He would say "I think my kids are trying to keep me busy." Don't let that fool you. He loved that you brought projects for him to do. He would show each and everyone of them to us. Show us the master pieces he would make them into. He loved redoing every one.

To Jay: You all most made it, buddy. 3 more years.

Sincerely,

Charles Wolfe, and Cheryl Golden
We will never forget Jay.
