“ Roy and Jessica , My heart is breaking for all of us. I dont have to tell you how much I love Lori. I will miss her laugh, her concern and kindness, her advice and talks that kept me going everyday, our long, long, long lunches(we would get talking and the waitress would have to keep coming to the table to get our order) Our many years of friendship and I will cherish the years of memories we made but most of all I will miss HER. Per one of our conversations she said after our death her and I would be sitting on a cloud sipping wine... so the last few days it brings comfort and a smile to me thinking of her sitting on a cloud sipping wine out of one of her unique wine glasses waiting for me. LOVE YOU THE MOSTEST LORI. So many hugs to you both and to all of Lori's family and friends.

I will miss her laugh, her kindness, our talks and her advice that kept me going everyday, I will miss our long,long,long lunches(we would drive the waitress' crazy because we would get talking and she would have to keep coming back for our order) her sense of humor but most of all I will miss HER. Per one of our conversations we laughed about it doesnt matter who comes to our funeral because we will be sitting up high on a cloud drinking wine together. That was Lori and thats what keeps a smile on my face is picturing her sitting on that cloud with one of her unique wine glasses filled with wine waiting for me. I LOVE YOU THE MOSTEST LORI. Love and hugs Roy and Jessica and Loris family and friends.
