“ I met Mary when she came to Rochester NY for treatments. She was in the same rehabilitation room as my husband's grandmother we affectionately called Oma, and another lady named Dorothy. Right away we instantly loved Mary as she kept an eye on Oma and the 3 of them in that one room was so full of joy! Mary would sing and Oma and Dorothy would join in--it was so amazing!! Oma had red slippers and Mary called her Ruby Slippers, they had Dorothy of course, and Mary called herself The Horse of a Different Color, and they were in the Land of Oz right there in that dreary room.

We visited them all often, and took Tim Horton's coffee for a treat for everyone. Mary showed me her "coffee" served at meals and had me laughing so hard at what she thought of that brown swill water! Needless to say we treated her like family since that day!

We since moved from Rochester to Washington State, but kept in touch by phone. She always made me laugh, such a wonderful spirit, and I am sure she is the life of the party singing and cracking jokes! We miss you Mary and are glad to have had you in our lives!
