“ I don't know you're family or your children but I came across this in the paper and it made me tear up. I can only imagine what you may be going through and I know you don't know me and that doesn't matter anyway...but i wanted to let you know that I am thinking of YOU. God Bless

“ I do not know your family....I just wish to send my heartfelt sympathies as you grieve the loss of your two precious angels. As a parent, I can't begin to fathom or understand the pain you are feeling in these difficult days. No words hold enough power to ease your hearts' pain. May God's love engulf you, holding you in your grief now and in the days to come. Know that you are not alone in this journey. My deepest sympathies.

“ As a parent I cannot imagine the loss and heartache being felt at the loss of these two angels. No words, no gestures...nothing can take away that pain. Please know that there are people here who are sharing your pain and are also here if you are in need of help. My sincere condolences to the parents and the entire family. Life lost way too soon.

Words from my Native American ancestry that might help give you comfort:

I give you this one thought to keep
I am with you still - I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the sweet uplifting rush,
of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone -
I am with you still in each new dawn.

RIP little angels.
