“ Alex was the first person i ever called my best friend. We grew up together. I will never forget how much fun we had. We went on each others family vacations, we would walk to his house on center street every day after elementary school and even during middle school. Alex and i were inseparable for years. I would stay at his house for weeks on end. I will never forget all the days we spent riding bikes or playing pokemon. Being friends with alex was a privilege. He will always be in my heart.

kelly, chad, uncle jimmy, uncle tommy, kara(sorry if i spelled it wrong) im so sorry for your loss...i feel horrible that i couldnt be there... i will get in touch with you...

Rest in peace alex....Love Jimmy Terwilliger.

“ I wont forget the last time we saw eachother...it was actually quite a while ago but it feels like yesterday....just heard the other day that you would find that white Jordan hat laying around once in a while and you still got a chuckle out of it....gonna miss seeing you around man...loved the years we spent living next door to eachother, I'll see ya next door again some day buddy! Rest easy and watch over your loved ones! You'll be missed but never forgotten....

“ Dear Gable Family,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one Alex. Please accept my heartfelt condolences. I'm sure that there is probably very little, if anything, anyone could say that would soothe the pain that you feel. However, may you find comfort from the promises of our loving Heavenly Father that He will reunite us with our dead loved ones by means of a resurrection right here on earth in paradise conditions that will be filled with peace, happiness, and perfect health for everyone in the very near future. (John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:9-11,29; Isaiah 33:24) May this precious hope, along with loving memories of Alex, bring you a measure of comfort during this most difficult time. Rest assured that God will do all that He has promised. (Hebrews 6:18) My deepest sympathy to you.

“ Alex was one of my favorite students that I had the pleasure of working with in the classroom and through athletics. We had many "philosophical" conversations (one of my favorites "the culinary differences between air-puff cheetos and hard crunchy cheetos") while sitting in the baseball dugout. Alex was always there to make me laugh. He had a good heart and he will be missed. My deepest sympathy to his family. May God grant you all peace and strength in your time of need.~ Lisa Horton
