“ It didn't matter what day of the month or what month you were born in. Mom always made you whatever you wanted to eat for your Birth day. I always asked for Chili because mom made the best Chili in the world. She would stand in that kitchen all day making a huge kettle with homemade bread every June for me. I also remember her getting up at 3am on the first day of deer season to make all of us that were hunting that day breakfast. Even though she hated the taste of deer meat. But I think we all looked forward to her food more the opening day itself. I love that woman and always will.

I love you mom!!!
