“ Grandmother Walborn is so wonderful person; She have many talents with things to do. Also, She is very kindred person and patient with all of us. She will be greatly missed by all of us. She may rest in the Lord's place at final.

With love,
Granddaughter

“ What I remember about Aunt Aline was that when we went to her house when I was growing up that it always smelled good because she was always baking something. My favorite was her cake with the hickory nuts on top. And she always let us look at her newest salt and pepper shakers that they had gotten. I know we will all miss her but I have wonderful memories of her and the time I spent with her.

Love,
