“ My daughter and I fell in love with Allan ..I was his cae giver and she met him when he would come into Hurley's. I enjoyed spending time with him and looking up old songs and listening to his stories of the war and his travels .I would stop by every day to check on him bring him a snack or sneak him a couple dollars so he could go get his chicken nuggets at Burger King .My heart and my daughters are truly broken he will be deeply missed.. Rest in peace Al we love you.
