“ A true gentleman! Also a wave and a smile when he was out and about. Often used the drop box on Hayden st and was able to see Andy and his handy work around the Post Office grounds. He will certainly be missed by all who knew him. God Speed good friend!

“ *Andy was the epitome of a good and gracious man, I remember him serving as president of Sayre Little League even though he didn't have any children of his own, he told my father he wanted to give back to a community that had given him so much as children were the hope of the future.
A kind, considerate man who lived a full, happy life and was a shining example of what it meant to be a Christian, our thoughts and prayers are with Andy's family.

“ Any young guy that grew up in Sayers East Side , and played base ball, would certainly remember Andy ( coach ). He always reminded us sportman ship and respect of others. In andy we have lost a man of honor and I don't see anyone coming along to replace him. God bless to his family. Jack Kenish

“ They don't come any better (any nicer, any more caring, any more genuine) than Andy. A guy who made your day better, just by passing you on the street and saying, "Hi." It cannot be overstated: the Valley has lost a champion, a hero, and a true servant. God Bless those who knew and loved Andy, and who are feeling his loss today. Chuck Carver
