“ Gyla and all of those who love Andrew and are grieving his loss, I have no words that will take away your pain, grief, or fix the holes in your hearts.... I'm so very sorry just doesn't cover your tragic and sudden loss. Lean on each other and share your happy and funny memories when you're able to and always remember all of you have an entire community behind you, supporting you, and there to hold you up when you feel overwhelmed, angry, sad, or whatever you feel or need. You are loved and important...and, you'll be in my thoughts and prayers. Gyla, I will message you my phone number but it'll come from my Mom's FB - I'm available to listen/talk anytime.

“ I was friends with Andrew when we were younger. Tracey would watch me for my mom when we still lived in Wysox. I would always walk over to their house and Andrew and I would always go outside in the woods to play or play video games. We played football together and wrestled as well. When I moved to Canton in the third grade, Andrew and I just lost touch and didn't really hangout anymore. Even though we didn't stay in touch, Andrew was a good friend and I have so many child hood memories with him, I am so sorry for your loss.
