

Arthur P. "Artie" Ellis

August 20, 1929 - September 22, 2014

Arthur P. "Artie" Ellis, 85, of Ulster, PA passed away following declining health, Monday morning, September 22, 2014 at home on his porch which he built. Arthur was born at home on Ghent Hill, Sheshequin Township, PA on August 20, 1929 the son of Bradford and Viola Mae Vernon Ellis. He attended school on Ghent Hill and subsequently operated a farm there and worked for several area farms. In years to follow, Arthur was employed by Herman Rynveld Sons in Athens, the Sheshequin Township Road Department, Pennsylvania Department of Transportation in Towanda and by Masonite Corporation in Wysox for 15 years until his retirement in 1986. Artie was a hard worker and always enjoyed keeping busy with farming, carpentry work, woodworking, cutting wood and helping neighbors in need. He enjoyed spending time visiting and sharing stories with family and friends, picnics, the outdoors and especially hunting deer and turkeys. Artie took great pride in building on his property by himself his cabin, 3 car garage, 2 porches, pavilion, chicken house and work shed. He was a very special person to be with and know as he lived a good life and loved what he did.

Surviving are his wife of 27 years, Sandra Beers Ellis,
