Beatrice C. McNeill, 83, formerly of Barton, NY passed away Wednesday evening, May 20, 2020 at the home of her daughter and son-in law, Kathleen and James Higgins in Athens, PA following a courageous battle with cancer. Beatrice was born in Brooklyn, NY on July 23, 1936, the daughter of Patrick and Beatrice Lundrigan.

She was a graduate of Prospect Heights High School, Brooklyn, NY.

Beatrice was employed by the U.S. Postal Service in Godeffroy, NY and also with the Elmira Postal Sectional Center for many years until retirement.

Beatrice loved spending time with her family, traveling, knitting and quilting.

Her family includes children; Kathleen Higgins (James) of Athens, Patricia Palanza (Robert) of Waverly, Charles McNeill (Bonnie) of Seneca Falls, NY, twins; Maureen Nelson (Richard) of Plattekill, NY, Eileen Payne (Steven) of Horseheads, NY, 17 grandchildren and 29 great grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, Beatrice was predeceased by her loving husband of 50 years, Charles Francis McNeill on May 28, 2007, infant son, Michael McNeill in 1967 and granddaughters, Maureen Higgins in 2003 and Kerry Higgins Banik in 2014.

A private funeral service will be held at the Alteri-Bowen Funeral Home 314 Desmond St. Sayre, PA.

Interment will be in the Barton Cemetery, Barton, NY.

The family suggests that contributions be directed to mosongsforkerry.org (an organization dedicated to her 2 granddaughters and their courageous battles with cancer) in memory of Beatrice C. McNeill. Memories and condolences may be expressed by visiting www.bowenfuneralhomes.com.

“ My mother was Patrick Lundrigan's sister, Margaret Edmonds. I met Beatrice probably 65 years ago in Brooklyn. I've wanted to get reacquainted for a long time. Now I'll have to send prayers up to her.

With regrets,

Margaret (Peggy) Edmonds Schaeffer
