the daughter of Alfred and Eleanor Benjamin Vanderpool. She grew up in Towanda and was a graduate of Towanda High School class of 1949. In early years, Beverly was employed by the Rynveld Wreath Company in Athens, PA. On August 14, 1950, Beverly married Wayne L. Vanderpool in Hagerstown, MD.

The couple made their home in Towanda Township where they raised their family. Beverly was the author of Mom's Endless Mountains Memories which was published in October of 2009 and is a book collection of short stories many which depict her life as a child growing up during the post-Depression years of the 1930's and her personal perspective of various subjects encountered throughout her life. Her love for nature, colors, animals and people stirred her to write. Often, she would waken in the night with a complete poem or story and would need to rise and write. Beverly loved life, conversation, sewing clothes and quilts and always looking her best.

Vanderpool and wife Eveleen of Towanda, Angie Maynard-Cott and husband David of Towanda, grandchildren; Robert Vanderpool, James Vanderpool, Eric Maynard, Cheryl Maynard Edsell and husband Leo, and Faith Maynard, great grandchildren; Josh Stempel, Cassie and Mason Tuttle, Brianna and Emma Bailey, brother-in-law, Rex Klinger of Towanda, sisters-in-law, Shirley Elliott and Elizabeth Eicher as well as several nieces, nephews and cousins.
