“ I am very sad learn of Bonnie passing. I remember when Bonnie and her mother Alice owned a restaurant across from the courthouse in Towanda. They were very kind and charitable women. Their food was excellent. My deepest sympathy goes out to members of Bonnie's family at this very difficult time.

“ My beautiful best friend. She was such a wonderful person, we took many trips to Virginia Beach at the spur of the moment. She called me Bob the builder and I called her Betty Crocker. Every holiday She made me my special sugar cookies. Even my granddaughter loved them so. I could go on and on with stories over the years. She said we were like Thelma and Louise. That we were. My heart will be empty, until we meet again. She knew I loved her and she loved me back. Wow I was so lucky to have her as my dear friend. ❤️
