On July 12, 1958, Bonnie married the love of her life, the late Robert "Bob" C. Spencer. They moved from Quakertown to New Albany, PA in 1970. She attended with her husband; and over the years, she served as Sunday School Secretary, social person, worked with the Awana program for 20 years, church clerk, and was active in the Ladies Missionary Circle.

As an adult, Bonnie continued to enjoy going to the beach, along with reading, crocheting, playing the accordion, spending time fishing, camping, playing Phase-10, and just spending time with "her Bob." She also had a great love for her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Bonnie is survived by her three children: Dion (Coleen) Spencer, Todd Spencer, Stacey (Tim) Nybeck. four grandchildren: Levi (Lindsey) Spencer, Katie Spencer, Nathan (Aarika) Nybeck, and Caleb Nybeck. and seven great-grandchildren: Olivia, Wyatt, and Lola Spencer; and Travis, Sophie, Myla, and Tobias Nybeck. “ Mrs. Spencer (I never called her Bonnie) gave me a cook book for my bridal shower. That is a common gift, but what was different about it was that she went through it and marked all the recipes that she made. I don't think many people would do that. I have wonderful memories of being at "Stacey's house". Mrs. Spencer was an awesome cook. In so many ways, she was a wonderful lady.
