“ Brian you were always special. When I came for piano lessons with your mom you would always play with me. We started out in school together. Your home in monroeton was one of my favorites. I always wondered what happen to you. I am sure there are many who will miss you. Prayers to your family. Kathy Evanchalk (Kerrick)

“ My Dear Brian, I am stunned and heartbroken at your passing. We had a special relationship that lasted 45 years. I loved you for your humor, honesty, and I understood your one of a kind way that you looked at the world. You were my dear, sweet friend that I only have good memories of always. I will miss you dearly and treasure the memories of our times together or on the phone all night long forever. Ill see you on the other side. Love you boy. Maryann
