“ Uncle Wayne was so dear to me! I was the 1st girl in our church who was allowed to have a man stand with her for Confirmation, back in 1975, and I was grateful. They said there was enough of an age difference! Either way, I always respected he was a man of good faith, even though he he didn't marry a Catholic, he kept going every week to church. Uncle Wayne taught me how to play chess and I beat him in my 1st game and I didn't have a clue how I did it! Christmases and New Year celebrations with him and Aunt Jean were SO special and it always brings tears to my eyes how much I miss them! I was so grateful to have them nearby when I was growing up. He and Dad always said they were each other's favorite brother! God bless them all reunited again. My condolences to Paul, Kathy, Scott, and the extended family. May Uncle Wayne know all the joys of heaven! Sending ❤️
