“ Caren Hoffmann was one of a kind. Her love of life spilled out and showered everyone around her. We have so many wonderful memories of Caren from our days at Monroe Franklin Elementary. She was so loved by all her students and everyone who worked with her. Caren loved anything pretty, music, Billy Joel, all animals and her favorite color was yellow, like a ray of sunshine. Now we can see her dancing and singing in heaven, with no more pain and no more tears. May God bless and be with all the family and may your wonderful memories stay with you to brighten the days. She tried to always be happy and bouncy no matter how she felt, towards the end she had a hard time on hiding a lot of her pain. There will never be a day that I dont think about you and will miss you terribly.....my prayers and hugs to all that she has touched in her lifetime....she loved everyone.....*
