“ To the family of Carol. Want to send our condolences. She was a wonderful person .

John (Sonny) in the time we knew her, she made you smile and you was very happy. Remember the good times you had together and she'll always be with in. They say time heals, maybe so but she's always with you. Smile that's what she would want. Sorry I can't be there today. Thinking of all. Sincerely, Karen & Buzz

“ I'll always remember Aunt Carol's smile and laugh. Just like it's pictured here. She was such a great person. We'll all miss her here on Earth, but it will be so great to be greeted by that smile again when we arrive in Heaven.

Sincerely,
Shannon Bates and family

*Dear Wright Family,
What a painful loss this is when you have to let go of someone that you love so dearly. Carol was loved by all those whose lives she touched and she will certainly be missed. As you cherish your precious memories of her please reflect on the words of Jesus at John5:28,29. In this passage we are assured of the resurrection. Imagine what a wonderful time that will be when our tears of grief will be transformed into tears of joy. May that sure hope provided by our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah through his son Jesus Christ bring you a measure of comfort at this difficult time.*
