“ Charlie, Charlie To child hood memories of sledding at your mom and dad's old house when is was snowing out. To swimming in the river with you and your sister's when we wear very young..To you stealing my soda in high school and running off with it before I could even get it out of the machine 🙄.

To you given me my first and only tattoo. To you heaping me out every time I called you.

To are kids growing up playing together as we did as kids .

Your way more then just Charlie your a son ,Father,Brother, nephew, cousin, friend to everyone. I'm gonna miss you so much but I'll see you in them beautiful girls of yours . Your mom Charlie you always told me that you new that you put your mom through hell then I would just say yeah I did mine to Charlie then you would do that laugh you had. Then you would say we wear horrible kids mary 🙄

I promise to check in on your mom to make sure she's OK Charlie and your girls.... Rest now Charlie ok ,you made your mark down hear now you can make your mark up in them clouds .

Love ya Charlie.

“ I do have some great memories of Charles and I some came rushing back to me when I received the horrible news ! My very first memory was when we went to prom together I can remember seeing him standing so tall in his suite in his driveway looking at me getting out of my car , the one memory I have that I hold on to because it felt like for the first time in our whole relationship our souls connected, we were driving home from the mall in Elmira and it was the 4th of July and we were driving and all of sudden there was big beautiful fireworks in the sky as the moon was full and the sky was bright with stars it almost felt magical and I looked over at him and just as I was looking at him his eyes caught my eyes and in that split second it felt as time stood still. Our life together was not a picnic by any means but he was my first real true love and my heart will always cherish that memory of those fireworks and him in his suite . Rest easy Charles Edward may you find eternal peace in heaven the kind of peace you couldn't find on earth! Tell Big John hi for me. now the two of you can sit on the banks and fish all day.
