“ My memories of my brother... Chucky you took me for my very first ride on a motorcycle and not just a motorcycle but a Harley Davidson when I was only 5-6, that later led to me owning my own Harley and even later in life you encouraged me to go MMI (Motorcycle Mechanics Institute) and become a Technician, which I did. This has blazed the path of my career up to this very day today. A career that has emulated your very own career. Once upon a time Chucky you worked in service at American Warhorse in Scranton and at that time it was a Indian Motorcycle Dealership. I believe you were the Service Manager and writer. I too now work for Indian Motorcycle and have for the last 8 years. I started in Service as a Service Manager & Writer and now I am the General Manager of the Dealership. Prior to that I was a technician for Harley Davidson Motorcycle in Tucson. Just like you Chucky, a Technician, and a damn good one I became, just like you again. I believe my life's path stems from the encouragement you gave to me as my older brother who I looked up to very much as I was growing up obviously. I want to thank you for that. Thank you for showing me what having a big brother is like. I wish it could have continued. I love you for all those things and will miss you. God Bless you Big Brother and please say Hello to our Mother for me and give her a kiss. I know she has missed you so.

Your little Sister,

“ Chuck, you left without a goodbye. We shared so many fun times while we were young. You, Dorothy & Jeff and all our other cousins. Roller skating, snowmobiling, ice-skating. You name it, we all did it. The fond memories never left me even when I lived away. You were always funny and cool. Thanks for being part of my young journey.
Rest In Peace
