“ Cindy you were my first friend, we went to kindergarten together and we proudly wore elephant costumes for a play that your mom had so perfectly made for us. We met other people in school, however I feel being your first friend and forever friend was a privilege, I'll always love and miss you. Heartfelt prayers to the whole family, so very sorry for your loss <3

“ Cindy was the strongest, positive and most inspirational person I knew! She was a great friend, wife, mother and grandma! There are so many people who loved her and she will be sadly missed. Now you are one of God's angels and at peace in heaven with your mom and dad! Wish I could have been there for you and seen you one last time! I love you and will never forget you ❤️😭🙏!
