“ I had been driving Clayton Tommy Johnson for a few years on the BeST Transit bus. He was a great guy who called me in Feb. To see how my knee replacement went. He also was at the scene of the crash that killed my brother Billy 45 years ago and stopped Bryon Fuller, Jimmy, ( my brother) and I from going to look at the wreck. He said, " don't go look. They're all dead." I always appreciated that. I miss him and our talks on the bus. I had nothing but respect for him. God Bless you Tommy.

“ It seems like just a few days ago you were here at the shop. A few days before that you were helping us in our times of trouble. And just a few weeks ago, I spent time talking to you with my dad, Vic. Those days are gone, but the memories remain. With wisdom to know the difference.
