Mommy & Daddy's Little Angel

I held him for a little while, made plans to watch him grow. We played each waking moment so he'd know I loved him so. I cherish all the tiny things that went unnoticed then. A special bond between us grew my little one, my friend. A place of honor he will have in my heart and in my home. It gives me strength and peace to know that he is not alone. I know that Jesus holds him close and tends his every need. Our child is safe in heaven; he holds a noble place indeed.

“ I saw your son's beautiful face in the paper today drinking my coffee at Wegman's. He is absolutely precious. I just felt compelled to write on your wall even though we have never met. As a mother of three young sons my sympathy and prayers go to you and your family. My you be comforted by his memories and knowing that he is in safe hands now. God Bless.
