“ From the first time I met Daisy, she became one of my favorite people. Daisy was such a trip! She belongs in Reader Digest's 'Unforgettable Characters'. I will never forget how much fun we had at Mary Jo Hatch's bridal shower. Between Daisy and Dick's Grandpa, I never stopped laughing. Then, there was Daisy sick in bed thinking that she had a problem with her gall bladder but instead being told that she was pregnant. I can still hear her voice wanting to strangle the doctors. She not only kept her own kids in line but their friends as well. Bill Welch could tell you the story of how he and Johnny got caught skipping school and he ended up in the bathtub when he dared to give Daisy some lip.

I'm glad I got to see her a few times before we moved down to FL. To all her family, please know that she will always live in my heart and memory.

“ We are so sorry for the loss of Daisy. She's been a special part of the Douglas' lives for many years. I will always treasure the times spent with her and the chicken and bisquits she used to make for me when I spent the night with Nancy! She was a wonderful woman and will be greatly missed. You are all in our thoughts.
