

Deborah Decker Rouco

March 3, 2013

Deborah Decker Rouco passed on to a better place at Morris View Healthcare Center in Morris Plains, NJ after a long illness on Sunday, March 3, 2013.

Debi was a lover of music, nature and all animals. She enjoyed camping and being outdoors in the company of friends and family. Deborah was also a fine artist who produced many beautiful paintings, prints and poetry. Her many friends and family will miss her warmth and joyful personality that livened every gathering.

She graduated from Towanda High School in 1968 and received a BFA degree in Art Education from Mansfield State College in 1975. She was employed at Dupont in Towanda for many years before starting her own house cleaning business.

“ Here is to better days for all of us...

Friendship without expectations -

A kind shoulder without judgment -

Open minds and hearts -

Good health, music, nature appreciation -

Maybe even wealth!

Anyway, let's stick it out together.
Good friends are hard to find..."

Debi Decker Rouco - Date unknown
