

Deborah Ann "Debi" Szabo

August 10, 1954 - November 18, 2024

Deborah Ann "Debi" Szabo, 70, of Towanda, PA died peacefully at home Monday morning, November 18, 2024. Deborah was born August 10, 1954, in Meshoppen, PA the daughter of the late James Stevens and Matie Manley Stevens. She was a graduate of Towanda High School and attended Mercer County Community College where she met the love of her life who would later become her husband, Joseph J. Szabo. Debi as she was known by her family and friends moved back to the area with her husband Joe to raise their family. Debi was active in community events, loved all animals, especially horses, enjoyed reading, and easily made friends with her charismatic personality. Debi's family includes her daughters, Margo Szabo and husband Tim Siedlecki, and Jessie Szabo and fiancé David Dunn, and granddaughter, Emily Siedlecki. Abiding with Debi's request, services will be private. The family requests that contributions be directed to the Animal Care Sanctuary, P.O. Box A, East Smithfield, PA 18817 in memory of Deborah Ann Szabo. Memories and condolences may be expressed by visiting www.bowenfuneralhomes.com.

Tribute Wall

ES

“ My heart goes out to Debi's family. I had the pleasure of having Jessie and Margo in my third-grade classroom at Wysox. Debi was a delight to work with in the parent-teacher group. She really cared about the students and how much could be done for them. Carry her memories in your hearts and she will always be with us.

Elaine Silverstrim - November 27, 2024 at 07:31 PM

CR

Thank you, Elaine ❤️

Candy Randall - February 25, 2025 at 02:00 PM