“ Our sincerest condolences to John, Destiny and the rest of the family. Debbie was a great person and touched the lives of many people. And I'll never forget the first time I met her when we picked her up on our way to Allen Avery's house. Me, Chris, Dotty, Rob and Paul Champlavier. She had tape on her glasses and could care less. And then later memories of her and how good she was to my children when her and Rob were together. Even took care of my dog for a month until I could find an apartment where I could have him. Good memories. Great woman. God bless and rest in peace, Debbie. Becky, Brian and Brandi (and Brianna).

“ So many wonderful memories with you growing up and even grown . You were my fathers best friend- he loved you dearly - funny random memory - you walking into the sliding glass door haha - for along time every time you saw me you encouraged me to forgive and forget and so many great laughs- you have inspired so many and have been so caring. If only love could have kept your alive ❤️ So many people knew and loved you! Your a rockstar in the recovery world - the way you cared so deeply for those struggling with addiction and never gave up- your a legend downtown Debbie Brown forever a friend Debra Leonard . I am a better person because of the parts you have shared with me
