“ Karen-- I am so sorry for your loss of Don. I remember him fondly from the days he worked at the Middle School when I taught there. He was always so helpful and willing to do all that he could to make our days pleasant. He and Ed always had a lot to discuss about fishing and hunting. Our prayers are with you and all his family.
Sincerely,
Ed & Barbara Ulatowski

“ Dear Family, I will remember Don as the always-smiling, easy-going chief custodian at the Towanda Area Middle School, who loved to fish and talk about the New York Football Giants. Bruce S. Bracken
