During his retirement he took part time employment with the Northern Tier Solid Waste Authority in Burlington as a truck driver and he spent lots of time with his son Jacob at his business, Jake's Farm Repair, where Duane deemed himself as the "parts guy" and enjoyed making trips to Lancaster to pick up what was needed for the business. When Duane wasn't working, he enjoyed riding his custom Trike around the county and attending many car and bike shows. He enjoyed making popcorn at the Troy Football games to support the Troy Music Boosters. He also enjoyed his time spent up at the Troy Vets Club with his dear friend and former farmhand, Harold Joiner.
