“ My heartfelt sympathy to the Denniston family on their loss. Echo was never without a smile on her face, high energy level I envied, and always a lady. I still remember her zipping around the corner from Fifth Street in that red car on her way to work. She will be remembered fondly when I visited her at the Manor but also as a former Sylvania co-worker. Again, my sympathy, Mary Kay Ward, Monroeton, PA

“ Echo and my Mom became friends when my mother moved to One East. They would visit and keep each other company for a bit. I always enjoyed a little visit with Echo and have wondered about her since my mom passed away. Believe when I tell you I understand all the emotions you feeling.
Sympathy to you all.
