

EJ Stewart

February 21, 1945 - October 10, 2025

EJ Stewart, 80, of Towanda, PA, departed from this life peacefully at home on October 10th, 2025.

Born on February 21st, 1945, in Huntsville, Alabama, EJ was the fourth child to the late George Stewart and Gertrude Horton.

For many years, EJ worked in construction, a profession in which he loved. His famous line, "A man's gotta do what a man has to do," perfectly encapsulated his steadfast approach to life.

More than anything, EJ found joy in helping others and sharing a good conversation. To know EJ was to love him, his engaging spirit will be deeply missed by his family and friends.

He leaves behind a loving family, including his children, Sheila Conklin, Deborah Stewart, Donald Conklin, Passion Brown, David Spencer, and Jasmine Stewart; seven grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

He is also survived by his siblings, George Stewart Jr., John Stewart, Sophia Turner, and Sammie McComb.

EJ was preceded in death by his sister, Arlene Stewart Ford, and his parents, George Stewart and Gertrude Horton.

A homecoming celebration for Mr. EJ Stewart will be held on October 25th, 2025, at the American Legion in Towanda from 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. All who knew and loved him are invited to attend and share memories.

Memories and condolences may be expressed by visiting www.bowenfuneralhomes.com.

Previous Events

Receive Friends

OCT 25. 2:00 PM - 4:30 PM (ET)

Towanda American Legion Post No. 42
912 South Main Street
Towanda, PA 18848

Tribute Wall

JJ

“ RIP E.J. you will definatley be missed but never forgotten ”

Jim & Jeannie Johnson - October 17, 2025 at 12:50 PM

MV

“ He always made us laugh always sit with us in wayside inn he would give his shirt off of his back for anyone such a kind hearted person you Will be miss our friend ”

Margaret and Kenneth Vanderpool - October 17, 2025 at 12:32 PM

VG

“ I was EJ neighbor for a lot of years...I watched 2 of his children as they grown into beautiful women...he was always good to me and always treated really nice....I have a lot of memories of him...that i will cherish...RIP my friend ”

Vivian God - October 17, 2025 at 10:19 AM