“ Every Sumer I would spend a week with my cousin Ella and I remember us going to the fair, roller skating, just walking up town and we would get veal cutlets on a stick, it was down stairs in a bar in Towanda. I even went to school with her at one time. They had art class and we had to draw a bird. I lived in N.Y. and we use to write letters to each other. The last time I saw Ella Mae was when her brother George passed away. I have had a lot of memories with the family. Ella Mae will be missed by all.
