“ R.I.P. Ellen. You are one special lady and will be an even special angel. I remember all the good times we had as teenagers and hanging out in your basement along with you & Jim. Not realizing it at the time, but you both were looking out for us and keeping us safe and out of trouble. I was one of privileged ones who was allowed to call you Mom. I can go on & on with how special you were here on Earth but everyone who knew you, knows that. Sending prayers for strength, comfort and guidance for you family as they go through this trying time. Fly high Ellen!
