

Euleta M. "Dede" Pierce

February 9, 1925 - November 10, 2019

Euleta M. "Dede" Pierce, 94, of 62 Race St. Towanda, PA passed away peacefully surrounded by her family Sunday morning, November 10, 2019 at Guthrie Memorial Hospital, Towanda. Euleta was born at home in Rome, PA on February 9, 1925, the daughter of Gordon Faye and Irene Harmon Barnes. "Dede" as she was known by her family and friends attended local schools. On December 3, 1946 Dede married Burton J. Pierce. In early years was employed by the Berlinger Silk Mill in Towanda and by Steinbacher's Restaurant in North Towanda before becoming a full-time homemaker. Her dedication in life was to her husband and family.

Dede loved sewing and canned hundreds of quarts of vegetables and fruit each year. Following the passing of her husband, Dede found the travel bug and enjoyed many trips with Sharaton Bus Tours.

She enjoyed listening to Country Music and looked forward each day to communicating with family and friends on her computer. She is survived by her brother, Donald (Shirley) Barnes, children, Barbara (Ron Arnold), Thomas (Sheila), Richard (Vicki Curtis), grandchildren, Tommy Joe Pierce, Tonya Pierce, Jamie (Tina) Ostravich, Todd Pierce, as well as several great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband of 59 years, Burton J. Pierce on March 22, 2006, and sisters, Marjorie Parsons, Eleanor Marie Forys and Frances Smiley.

A private funeral service will be held at the convenience of the family. There are no calling hours.

The Maryott-Bowen Funeral Home of Towanda is assisting the Pierce Family with arrangements.
