“ My heart is conflicted hearing the news of Aunt Florence's passing. I know she is in a better place but the world has lost a wonderful, peaceful, loving generous soul. I remember one summer staying a few weeks at Aunt Florence and Uncle Earleau's. The house was full and people were always coming and going but they welcomed me, my mom Irene and my sisters Jeannie and Karen with open arms. I remember that Aunt Florence never seemed to get flustered with the noise and chaos from a full house because family meant the world to her and filled her heart with joy. Speaking of family we would all pile into the car and go to Grandma Minier's for a visit and Aunt Florence would always take advantage of the opportunity to get in a car nap. Sitting in the back we would all just wait to see how long it took before she would nod off and her head would start to bob. At Grandma's everyone would gather and the chatter and smoke would abound. I remember Aunt Florence, Aunt Mary Ellen, Aunt Ora, Aunt Jeanette, Aunt Louise, Grandma and my mom Irene sitting in the kitchen gabbing away till Dewey (Grandpa) would ride up on his lawn mower and want supper and the group would disperse till another day. Happy memories!
