“ She and her family were neighbors of mine in Wyalusing growing up. Spent many a day at their house, and she always treated me like one of her kids. Went to school with her son Lonnie, and we played at their house many times throughout the years. Last time I saw her I was an adult, visiting home for a weekend. Always greeted me with that fantastic smile, that's just the way she was. Beautiful soul, and I am sure that heaven is a better place now that she is there.
