

Genevieve Louise Koennemann DePauw

February 28, 1925 - December 23, 2020

Genevieve Louise DePauw, 95, of Overton, PA formerly of Paramus, NJ passed away Wednesday, December 23, 2020 at the Wyalusing Valley Personal Care Home, Wyalusing, PA. Genevieve was born at home in Hackensack, NJ on February 28, 1925 a daughter of Edward and Jenny Falato Koennemann. As a youth she attended a 4-room schoolhouse until 8th grade and was a graduate of Hackensack High School.

In early years, Genevieve was employed by Wrights Aeronautical and helped to make the B29 Bomber which dropped the atomic bomb during World War II. In later years she worked as a telephone operator and was co-owner of Bill's radio & TV Repair in New Jersey for many years until retirement. Genevieve was a 25-year member of the Paramus Volunteer Ambulance Corps where she served as the first woman Captain. She taught first aide and CPR for the Red Cross and always donated her fee to the Paramus Ambulance Corps. Genevieve was formally honored as Paramus Woman of the Year and was active in the Paramus VFW Ladies Auxiliary. Genevieve enjoyed square dancing and in early years participated competitively in several states. She also enjoyed traveling abroad, attending auctions, playing cards, riding motorcycle and snowmobiles. She was a wonderful cook, a friend to many, and loved all animals.

Genevieve purchased her home in Overton, PA in 1957 where she retired in 1982.

Surviving are her sons, Frank DePauw and wife Donna of Port Orange, FL,

Richard DePauw and wife Eunice of Overton, Emiel DePauw Jr. of Midland Park, NJ, grandchildren, William DePauw and his fiancé Samantha Boh, Keith DePauw and his girlfriend, Erin Surcouf, Allysa Schultz and her boyfriend, Aaron Alexander, a great granddaughter, Emery DePauw.

In addition to her parents, Genevieve was predeceased by her husband, Emiel F. DePauw in 2001, son, Michael A. DePauw in 2007, brother, Howard Koennemann, sister, Florence Corso, and special nephew, Leonard James Wohlrab. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

“ Our thoughts & prayers are with you!! May God bless & sustain you & grant to you strength,peace,courage,love,hope,peace & a strong faith.One day in God,s timing we shall all join on that "Golden Shore" where Genny has gone to join her loved one's gone before her. Heaven is a more beautiful place now that Genny is there!! No one can ever take away all the great time's that we had with Genny & Lenny at Square Dance's!! Those great memories will forever abound!!

Matthew 10:30 says that every hair on our heads are numbered & Ecclesiastes 3 says that there is a time & a place & a reason & a season for everything under the Heavens & God is always in control.

God bless,comfort & cherish you with all your precious memories to hold near & dear to your hearts!! Sending our love!! Happy New Year!!
