“ I just learned of Graydon's passing and feel as if a part of me is gone. Graydon and I spent so much time together growing up in Towanda. My Mom and Dad, Tom and Mary Blakely, treated him as a son. He never forgot them, visiting whenever he was in Towanda....and he never forgot me. I will forever treasure the memory of his many phone calls. Driving from New York to Towanda, he would call and talk of his children and grandchildren, of the heartache he felt over Brandon's death and the regard he felt for Marlene. I have never met Graydon's family, but I know how much he loved all of you. You were always on his mind and in his heart.

Although we rarely saw each other in the years since we were graduated from high school, Graydon and I began our phone conversations as if we had been together the day before. I will always treasure the gift of his friendship, the smile he brought to my lips, the warmth and care he communicated with his words. My one regret is that I was not able to say my last good-bye at the services on Friday. My husband and I were in California caring for a family member. I so wish I could have expressed my sincere condolences in person.

With warmest regards, Ellen Blakely Pagano

“ In my lifetime I have made many friends, but none quite like Graydon. We had some sort of special bond that held us together. He was there to be a shoulder to cry on and a hand to hold whether good times or bad. Our friendship lasted over time. My daughter looked toward his guidance when her father died and now she feels as if she has lost a second father. He sat for hours at my kitchen table grieving the death of Brandon and hours living the joy of Alivia and Avaya, how he loved those grandchildren. How proud he was of you both of you, Lindsey and Ashley on the beautiful women you have become and so sad that he missed a greater part of your life. Marlene, he had the greatest respect for you and all that you did for the children and for him. God Bless you all in this sad time. He was a best friend I will miss forever. I know Brandon Was there to greet him and neither of them are in pain and they will watch and guide you all forever.

I am so sorry I am unable to make it as planned
