“ Thinking of you Tom and Darlene, Gwen was a huge part of my parents lives, and they thought a lot of her. In my visit with her I know how sweet of a gal she was, and just why they felt that way. She is no longer in pain, that is a beautiful thing. Nichole Cooley

“ Gwen lived in my parents home with me for several years through all the years so many memories and laughs was made my life was better for being able to be loved by her and to love her ..Her smile was contagious and joy remarkable. She has always been a true survivor and shown such strength through her struggles. She taught us all how to endure and enjoy what life has to offer We was all blessed to have our lives touched by Gwen..
