“ My heartfelt thought and prayers for peace and comfort go out to Henry’s wife, Shirley and the whole

Family. May God grant them the peace that only he can and may they find comfort In knowing that so many people thought so fondly of Henry. May thy know that the suns coming up I. The morning, every tear will be gone from their eye. This ol place is going to give way to victory and like an eagle we’ll take to the sky! Fly high Henry and May he rest in the hallow of our saviors hand until we can be together again where the roses never fade.
