Irvin J. Stoudt, known as "Joe" to his family, age 71, passed away on September 24, 2024, at the Bradford Hills Nursing and Rehabilitation Facility where he has lived for almost 5 years. Joe was born on May 24, 1953, at the family home on the Brocktown Road, Monroeton, PA, to Florence E. Strouse Stoudt and Robert H. In his younger years, he held several different jobs, including Leona Meat Plant, some construction work and as manager of Our Guys Electronics in North Towanda. He often spoke of his security duties at the Elections Polls and riding along with Sheriff Tom Fairchild when the Sheriff was transporting prisoners. Joe taught himself to play the steel guitar and some locals may have known him as

“Texas J. Trucker” He lived at Colonial Towers in Towanda for many years and he was very recognizable in his cowboy hat, sitting in his motorized wheelchair in front of Hurley's Store, asking people he knew, “what kind of trouble are you getting into now?”

Or you might have seen him traveling along the side of Route 6 on that Jazzy wheelchair.

Joe was predeceased by his Mother in 2006 and Father in 2021. He is survived by six siblings; Robert H. Stoudt, Jr. (Patti), New Albany; Bonnie Stoudt-Johnson (Bill),
