

James Guy Flanagan

August 4, 1947 - December 24, 2025

James Guy Flanagan passed away surrounded by those he loved. He left behind a legacy of generosity, laughter, and deep devotion to family. Jim had a big heart and was known by all as a true giver—always willing to help others, often putting their needs before his own. His laughter was constant, contagious, and unforgettable, filling every room he entered.

Jim was born on August 4, 1947, in Sayre, Pennsylvania. He graduated from Northeast Bradford and went on to build a life marked by dedication, perseverance, and hard work. He spent over 42 years as a production manager at Osram Sylvania (now GTP), where he was respected for his strong work ethic and commitment.

Jim worked hard throughout his life to provide for those he loved most. His family was his greatest pride and joy, and he loved them endlessly. He is survived by his beloved wife, Anna Flanagan; his sons, Kevin Otis (Tina) and Brian Otis (Pam); his brothers, John Flanagan (Fran) and Jeff Flanagan (Beth); and many nieces and nephews.

Jim was a proud grandfather to Richard Casterline, Montana Curtis, Tayler Cochran, and Sydney Otis, and a cherished great-grandfather to Rogan Casterline, Rylan Casterline, and Owen Cochran. He found immense joy in every generation of his family and treasured every moment spent with them. In his quieter moments, Jim enjoyed fishing and singing, but he was never truly quiet for long. He loved to talk—especially on the phone—and could strike up a conversation with anyone.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, Carroll and Lone Flanagan; his grandparents, Guy and Charlotte Diltz, and James and Pearl Flanagan.

James Guy Flanagan will be remembered for his kindness, unwavering work ethic, contagious laughter, and the deep love he poured into everyone around him. For many years, he faithfully attended Hope Baptist Church and was deeply connected to his church family, who meant so much to him.

Though his earthly presence will be deeply missed, we rejoice in the hope and promise of eternity. Jim has finished his race and is now home with his Savior—resting in the arms of Jesus, where there is no pain, only everlasting joy and perfect peace. His faith lives on as his greatest legacy, and we find comfort in knowing we will see him again.

A Celebration of Life will be held Tuesday, December 30, 2025, at 3:00 p.m. at the Hope Baptist Church, 229 Hiduk Road Wyalusing, PA with Pastor Wade Clauser officiating. The family requests that contributions be directed to the HOPS Ambulance Association, 6185 Herrickville Road, Wyalusing, PA 18853 in memory of James Guy Flanagan. Memories and condolences may be expressed by visiting www.bowenfuneralhomes.com.

“ Spent a lot of time with Jim before we graduated from high school. We hunted crows when we could, helped some times when Jim and John worked at the orchard, went to Watkins Glen for races. Lots and lots of really great memories!
