

James 'Jim' J. True

February 22, 1938 - July 16, 2013

James "Jim" J. True, 75, of Sheshquin Twp., passed away peacefully on Tuesday, July 16, 2013, at his home, the Failte Inn in Sheshequin.

Jim was born on Feb. 22, 1938, in Herminie, Pa., the son of the late Melvin and Catherine True. Jim attended Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, Va., on a football scholarship that paid for his education. He attained his professional engineering license in 1980. Jim worked as an electrical engineer for IBM until his retirement in 1994 when he returned to Bradford County after spending the previous 20 years in Cary, N.C. After his retirement, Jim and his wife, Sarah, became inn owners/keepers at Failte Inn B&B, 8144 Sheshequin Road, Athens, PA 18810.

Jim enjoyed spending time with his family. He was also a member of the Ulster United Methodist Church. Jim was a kind, gentle, and loving husband and father; he will be dearly missed by many. He is at peace now and reunited with his beloved son, Ronald.

Jim is survived by his wife of 54 years, Sarah Scholl True; sons, Jamie True of Hawaii, and Christopher True of Charleston, Va.; daughter, Jennifer Leach of Sheshequin Twp.; granddaughters, Chelsea and Cassidy Bryan; step-grandchildren; brother, John Charles True; sister, Karen Detar; and many nieces, nephews and cousins. In addition to his parents, Jim was preceded in death by his son, Ronald C. True on March 3, 2013, and sister, Elaine Serman.

A memorial service for Jim will be held at 8:30 p.m. on Friday, July 19, 2013, at the Ulster United Methodist Church, Second Street, Ulster, Pa., with Pastor James Rouse officiating. Interment will be private. The Bowen-Farr Funeral Home, Ulster, Pa., is assisting the family with arrangements. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations may be made to The Multiple Sclerosis Foundation, National Headquarters Donations, 6520 North Andrews Ave., Fort Lauderdale, FL 33309, in memory of Jim and his late son, Ron.

“ Jim was so many wonderful things. Before I married Ron, it was so obvious the love and happiness his family cherished and shared. Jim would never admit it, but he was always at the helm. A quiet, loving man who knew when to step up, step down and pass around. Ron acquired those traits from admiration I know, and passed them so lovingly to us. From N.C. we say,: Thank You Jim so very, very much. You will be so missed. I love you Sarah, you were so vital and important to Jim, first and foremost, and remain, thankfully, to me and all of us. It is beyond luck or chance that I was so blessed in knowing all of you!

Forever,
Susan True
