

Janice Marie Clagett Corbett

September 7, 1930 - December 17, 2025

December 17, 2025, our shining light, our mother, our grandmother, great grandmother, sister, friend, left this earthly world and rejoined her beloved husband and son.

Janice Marie Clagett Corbett was born September 7, 1930, the daughter of Pearl Sage Clagett and Fred Clagett, little sister of Marjorie C. Williams.

Janice was raised in Rummerfield, PA where her father owned and ran the General Store/Post Office. She attended a one-room schoolhouse in Rummerfield before attending the newly built Wysox Elementary School. She was a graduate of Towanda Area Senior High School class of 1948 and was an original member of the TOHIMEKI year-book staff. While in high school Janice met her handsome husband, Jack Corbett, whom she married on September 9, 1950. Residing in Rummerfield and growing her family until building a new family home in 1959, they resided there until 1994, when they built their dream home at Lake Wesauking.

Jack and Jan were avid members of the Bradford County Outboard Motor Club where they enjoyed camping and boating for many years with family and friends. Jan was employed at the First National Bank of Bradford County and later at Williams Oil Company with her brother-in-law, Bert, and sister Marge in the founding days of the company. She was employed there until her retirement.

Jan dedicated her life to her beloved family and was loved by many. She was a member of the Methodist Church and volunteered for the United Methodist Women, the Towanda Elks Lodge BPOE, and card club. Jan and Jack enjoyed traveling to Florida with many friends annually. Jan and her husband would spend time traveling the country, including trips to Hawaii and Alaska. Her joy in life was her family, her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. They loved spending time with their friends and family at their pool, where many children learned how to swim.

Janice was predeceased by her father and mother Fred Clagett and Pearl Sage Clagett, beloved husband, Jack Corbett and loving son, Duane Lee Corbett, beloved sister, Marge and brother-in-law Bert Williams, and in-laws, Gerard and June Corbett, and Gytha Corbett. She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law: Debra and Jeffrey Jones, son and daughter-in-law: Kim and Kathleen Corbett, grandchildren, Shannon Barrett, Joshua Jones (Ranee), Amanda Frederick, Kelsey Parsell (Jason), Christopher Corbett (Melanie), Casey Corbett (Kaitlyn), special nieces, Kay Kintner and Wendy Manchester, great grandchildren: Nyssa, Garrett, Jackson, Hagen, Wyatt, Rylan, Rurik, Rhys, Norah.

We would like to thank the Towanda Guthrie Personal Care Home in Towanda, PA for their years of dedication and loving care. In Jan's final days the staff surrounded her with love and care making sure she was at peace, as well as Guthrie Hospice who attentively kept her comfortable in her journey home.

“ There are so many memories of Jan and Jack from my younger years. Jan brought me a present the day before I left for college. Mom and Dad celebrated their anniversary with them because their wedding days were close. I remember the parties in the basement at their house and the movies I've watched of so many of the Boatclub people. In my mind, Jan was gentle, kind, and a great mother. Rest in peace, Jan. My condolences to the family. Keep the wonderful memories living in your hearts.
