Jeffrey Thomas Oliver

Jeff Oliver de 275 Dove Lane, Towanda falleció inesperadamente en su casa el 23 de mayo de 2020. Nació en Ephrata, Washington, hijo de Harvey Charles Oliver y Faye Beverly Hubert Oliver. Su familia se mudó a Minnesota cuando era joven y aquí es donde vivió durante muchos años con amigos y familiares. Desde entonces, Jeff trabajó y vivió en varios lugares a lo largo de su vida, incluido Manzanillo, Colima, México, donde conoció a su esposa Anelise Aguirre Figueroa. Fue su reciente empleo lo que trajo a Jeff y su familia a Towanda, donde descubrió una nueva felicidad.

Jeff enseñó a todos a su alrededor a alentarse, levantarse y fortalecerse unos a otros. Él realmente se preocupaba por la felicidad de otras personas e irradiaba amor y amistad. Tenía un humor inteligente y la risa más contagiosa. Era confiable y práctico, y usó su inteligencia para el bien común. Fue devoto y leal, especialmente como padre, hermano y cónyuge. Un verdadero pilar en cualquier entorno en el que se encontraba, traía estabilidad y seguridad. Como padre, apreciaba cada minuto de diversión. Era sensible pero firme, cariñoso y afectuoso. Con sus diversos intereses y conocimientos, tenía muchos círculos de amigos con quienes era una fuente constante de apoyo emocional e inspiración.

Le encantaban los animales, la carpintería, el aire libre, el jarabe de arce 100% real y una buena noche de cine. Le encantaba la variedad de música, tenía un gran ritmo y era un bailarín suave. Le gustaba hablar de historia, descubrimientos científicos, debatir sobre política y le entusiasmaban las ideas de negocios. Tenía muchos libros favoritos y se refería a la Biblia como "Instrucciones de vida antes de abandonar la Tierra".

Era sorprendentemente natural para la contabilidad, lo que le permitió organizar no solo números, sino personas, sistemas y hechos. Le gustaba interactuar con todos los diferentes departamentos, y apreciaba mucho a las personas eficientes y trabajadoras. Siempre estaba "al tanto" sobre la mejor tecnología disponible y compartía sus conocimientos con los demás. Como líder de equipo, mostró altos estándares a través de su propia ética e integridad en el trabajo.

Fue un héroe para sus hijos. Su legado de amor, carácter, fe y sabiduría se transmitirá por muchas generaciones.

Le precedieron en la muerte los padres Harvey y Faye Oliver, el hermano Shawn Oliver y la hermana Kandace Dart.

A Jeff le sobreviven su esposa Anelise Oliver y su hijo Diego Oliver Figueroa de Towanda; hijas Desirae Empey (Cole), Brigitte Dapper (Nathan), Amanda White (Ryan), Melissa Oliver y Holly Bradford; hermanos Tim Oliver (Sandy) y Kent Oliver (Deb); nietos Cassandra, Sara, Mikayla, Sophia, Josephina, Matthew, Isaac y Benjamin; el suegro Rogelio Aguirre Avellaneda de la Ciudad de México, México; cuñado Rogelio Aguirre Figueroa de Cancún, México; y las cuñadas Yolotzin Aguirre Figueroa de Cihuatlán, Mexico y Citlali Aguirre Figueroa de la Ciudad de México, México.

La familia recibirá visitas de 5: 00-6: 00, con servicios a las 6:00 el sábado 30 de mayo de 2020 en la funeraria Maryott-Bowen.

Jeffrey Thomas Oliver

Jeff Oliver of 275 Dove Lane, Towanda passed away unexpectedly at home on May 23, 2020. He was born in Ephrata, Washington to Harvey Charles Oliver and Faye Beverly Hubert Oliver. His family moved to Minnesota when he was young and this is where he lived for many years with friends and family. Since then, Jeff has worked and lived in several places over his lifetime including Manzanillo, Colima, Mexico where he met his wife Anelise Aguirre Figueroa. It was his recent employment that brought Jeff and his family to Towanda, where he discovered a newfound happiness.

Jeff taught everyone around him to encourage, lift, and strengthen one another. He genuinely cared for other people's happiness and radiated love and friendship. He had intelligent humor and the most contagious rolling laughter. He was trustworthy and practical, and used his smarts for the common good. He was devoted and loyal, especially as father, brother, and spouse. A true pillar in any setting he was in, he brought stability and security. As a parent, he cherished every minute of fun. He was sensitive yet firm, caring, and affectionate. With his diverse interests and knowledge, he had many circles of friends with whom he was a constant source of emotional support and inspiration.

He had a love for animals, woodworking, the outdoors, 100% real maple syrup, and a good movie night. He loved a variety of music, had great rhythm, and was a smooth dancer. He enjoyed talking about history, scientific discoveries, debating politics, and was enthusiastic about business ideas. He had many favorite books, and referred to the Bible as "Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth."

He was a surprisingly natural fit for accounting which allowed him to organize not just numbers, but people, systems, and facts. He enjoyed interacting with all the different departments, and he greatly appreciated efficient, hard-working people. He was always “in the know” about the best available technology and sharing his know-how with others. As a team leader, he displayed high standards through his own work ethic and integrity.

He was a hero to his children. His legacy of love, character, faith and wisdom will be passed on for many generations

He was preceded in death by parents Harvey and Faye Oliver, brother Shawn Oliver, and sister Kandace Dart.

Jeff is survived by his wife Anelise Oliver and son Diego Oliver Figueroa of Towanda; daughters Desirae Empey (Cole), Brigitte Dapper (Nathan), Amanda White (Ryan), Melissa Oliver, and Holly Bradford; brothers Tim Oliver (Sandy) and Kent Oliver (Deb); grandchildren Cassandra, Sara, Mikayla, Sophia, Josephina, Matthew, Isaac, and Benjamin; father-in-law Rogelio Aguirre Avellaneda of Mexico City, Mexico; brother-in-law Rogelio Aguirre Figueroa of Cancun, Mexico; and sisters-in-law Yolotzin Aguirre Figueroa of Cihuatlan, Mexico and Citlali Aguirre Figueroa of Mexico City, Mexico.

The family will receive visitors from 5:00-6:00, with services following at 6:00 on Saturday, May 30, 2020 at the Maryott-Bowen Funeral Home 217 York Ave. Towanda, PA. Memories and condolences may be expressed by visiting www.bowenfuneralhomes.com.
