“ I did not know Joel and happened to stumble across the tragic news while researching Pennsylvania prisons.

What happened to Joel is a disgrace. A nonviolent man placed in cell with a psychopath, in prison for life for randomly murdering and mutilating a female Philadelphia art student. Do NOT believe that this was a fight. Prison fights do NOT happen at 3:30 a.m. in the morning. Joel was jumped while sleeping by this psychopath and never had a chance to defend himself.

Heads at the Pa DOC should roll starting with the Warden of Camphill Prison!

My sincere condolences to you and your family for this needless and completely avoidable tragedy.

Respectfully,

Philip A. Downey

I am absolutely truly sorry for this tragic and awful loss which should not have happened. Kierra Johnson, Grier's murder victim, was my cousin and mere months ago after nearly five years of agony we the family saw justice served, and a man removed from society forever. We thought his carnage would end at that exact point but I see today the confines of prison couldn't contain this madman from harming another human being. Given his sentence he shouldn't had been sharing a cell with a person whose term didn't fit his own, and whatever legal action you wish to take against the state prison you have my family's full support.

I grieve with you, and I hope one day this injustice is firmly rectified with measures in-place preventing this from ever happening to another.

I served 17 years and did some of it at Camp Hill. During intake they ask you your cellmate preferences, say white only and you won't get any wild animals as cellies. I don't know if Joel did time before but I heard several inmates that I could tell it was their first time in state say it doesn't matter when asked their preferences. They don't know the danger that the DOC is putting them in. It disgusts me that the DOC would do this. They know the danger. Philip you're right, it wasn't a fight. He did it because he was white and he had nothing to lose. God bless Joel and his family.
