“ Saddened to read of Tom's passing. Not many left who can remember those pinochle games around the Kielty dining room table, or the night shift at the David Wilmot Hotel. Tom was an original and will be missed.

“ I was so sorry to read of Tom's death. I was able to visit him while he was in Skilled Nursing and we were able to visit a little. Certainly planned on seeing him again, but again plans don't always turn out. I liked Tom very much, knew that he always had a gentle caring soul and always enjoyed it when we would run into each other, mostly at Hurleys. God rest his soul, and I am sure He will. Love and prayers, Mary Alice Burchill Demangone. St. Agnes School Classmate 1956
