“ Juanita and Jim Patterson were wonderful people! I, and my sister Beth and brother Bud want to say it was an honor to know them.

Our parents, Colonel and Marjorie Wood, were charter members of the Grand Paraders too. They became best friends and even when wintering in different cities in Florida they coordinated their schedules so they could square dance together. Juanita attended Marjorie's 90th birthday party in September 2019, located in Canton, PA. Here is a photo of the Grand Paraders who provided entertainment and many good memories for Marjorie and Juanita. Juanita is in the front and Marjorie is standing to the right of her.

The newspaper clipping is from 2018 and taken at Julie and Scott Parker's pavilion. The Grand Paraders were celebrating their 41st year.

Juanita was a bright light and her lovely spirit will live on!
